This was a back and forth game with the home team ultimately getting the win. Plantation initially took the lead and held on to force extra innings. Plantation pitcher, Karl Mehn threw an excellent game, received strong support with stellar infield and outfield defense. Dave Schoeder, Tom Christie, and Joe Huber all went 3/4 with timely hits from other members as well.

Team Legacy fought back and managed to secure the win in 9th inning with the go ahead run batted in by Tim McLellan. Legacy pitcher Tony Zendarski got the win and contributed 3/4 at the plate. The infield scrambled and got multiple key outs. The outfield also made some tough catches when needed. Strong base running may have been the determining factor.

This was an exciting game that went down to the last AB in a thriller which both teams agreed was the best game they have been in all season.

Hawthorne: Bill DeHore and Dominic Affinati went 4-4. Mark Baughan, Wayne Hoffman, Mike French, Jim Herbert, and Joe Tierney all went 3-4 with Hoffman having a 2B. Mike Prili had a triple and Larry Avery had triples with Avery also having a double.

Del Webb: Ken Anderson and John Ruff were 4-4 with Anderson hitting a 2B and 2 3B. Rich Keck and Berni Schyvinch were 3-4; Warren Farina was 3-5; Glen Ryan, Brad Storck, and Jack Morris were 2-3, all with BBs. The Hawthorne players came back from large deficits for the 2nd time to knot up the game at 22-22 going into the 8th inning and then made the defensive plays to send the game into the 8th inning. Del Webb's defense held Hawthorne in the top of the inning and Warren Farina's hit scored Don Schaap with the winning run.

Hawthorne and Holiday staged an instant classic in the final game of the 2024 part of the schedule. The lead seesawed back and forth from the first inning on. The top half of the eighth inning saw Hawthorne jump in front 23-20, but Holiday rallied in the home half to win the game on a soft single down the left field line by Bud Harburn that drove in the winning run from third. Solid hitting by both teams and an entertaining game for the fans in attendance.

Hawthorne's WINNING PITCHER - LARRY AUER

Hawthorne played an awesome game against Legacy

Hawthorne's team has come together to be one unit, playing as a bona fide D6A team.

Legacy had a home run hitter - Tom Edwards that added 3 runs to their score.

Legacy also played a very good game, and it was very competitive right up to the bottom of the 8th inning when with bases load and a full count on Hawthorne's Wayne Hoffman; he was walked to bring in the winning run for Hawthorne (Game Over).
